HYDERABAD AUG.16:

Digital education company Next Education inaugurated a new learning centre in the city at Banjara Hills. The centre works as an after-school e-learning centre with a personalised class room - Mi-Class - for every student.

“The model is to integrate teachers with education tools. A personal computer is provided to every student, along with a teacher in subjects such as maths, science, and social studies,” B. Dev Ralhan, CEO, said.
